DECLARATION

This Inventory provides a fair and accurate record of the contents of the property and their condition. It also records the condition of the fabric of the internal and external parts of the property.

Unless otherwise stated it is accepted that a listed item is in good condition, free from obvious defect or damage.

Any comments noted by either party in respect of a listed item should be recorded at the time of the check-in and added to this Inventory.

The Inventory should be used for identification purposes only and not as a structural survey report.

Items stored or kept in lofts or cellars and locked rooms that have not been recorded on the Inventory are the sole responsibility of the landlord.

GUIDANCE NOTES FOR TENANTS AT THE END OF TENANCY

The Inventory will be checked at the end of the tenancy at which time any variances or discrepancies will be recorded. Missing or damaged items that are not considered as 'fair wear-and-tear' will be the responsibility of the tenant to pay for repair, replacement, making good, cleaning or any other required process.

The following notes have been designed to assist you when handing your property back to the landlord at the check-out appointment

In order to protect your deposit, it is advisable that you read these guidelines and take the appropriate action.

- Ensure that the property has been left in a good, clean condition throughout and all of your personal items have been completely removed.
- All items should be returned to exactly the same position as they are listed on the Inventory.
- All windows, mirrors and glass items should be cleaned and polished
- All woodwork, skirting, dado rails, picture rails, frames, shelving, cabinets, etc., should be cleaned and polished.
- All soft furnishings such as carpets, curtains, rugs, bed linen, towels, throws and mattresses, etc., should be laundered/washed free of stains, ironed (where applicable) and left clean.
- All walls and ceilings should be dusted, wiped over (where necessary) and be free of excessive wear.
- All kitchen appliances including cookers, hobs, microwave ovens, toasters, washing machines, tumble dryers, etc., should be cleaned free of residues, grease and stains.
- All kitchen cupboards should be cleaned and emptied of your food and belongings.
- Fridges and freezers should be emptied of food, cleaned thoroughly, defrosted, switched off and their doors left open.
- Cooker extractors should be cleaned and their filters changed.
- Bathrooms should be cleaned thoroughly and all sealant and grouting should be free of staining or mould.
- All light bulbs should be present and in working order.
- All picture hooks, tacks, screws, nails or other fittings installed by you should be removed and any damage made good.
- Gardens should be in a well-maintained condition for the time of year, lawns should be cut and all garden implements should be clean and in working order.
- Any missing or damaged items should be replaced to match.
- A mail forwarding service should be set up by you to ensure that your post reaches you at your new address.
